

Catamaran ride to Sea lion's island

The excursion proposes a ride on Beagle's channel on board of a comfortable catamaran and obtaining spectacular views of the city of Ushuaia with the Andes mountain range as a background.

A bilingual guide delivers information related to the history, geography, flora fauna and the characteristics of the region.

We visit: Les Eclaireurs light house, Sea lion's island, that houses a colony of sea lions, Sea bird's island were big flocks of cormorants nest and a small walk takes place in one of the islands with ancient yagan's sites.

Among the mentioned before it is possible to spot segulls, skuas, antarctic dove, steamer and chiloe widgeon, an occasional condor together with some species of the local flora. Also is not uncommon, during the summer season, to watch hump whales, dolphins and orcas.

The captain skillfully maneuvers the ship to allow different positions in order to capture lots of pictures.

After 2 and a half hours sailing the excursion returns to Ushuaia's port.
