

HELICOPTER FLYOVER ESMERALDA LAGOON

And if we go in search of a natural jewel? This marvelous experience begins flying over the Ushuaia Bay , to later enter the Olivia River Valley , appreciating the majestic Mount Olivia and the characteristic Mount Cinco Hermanos . Just when the immensity begins to take your breath away, you will see the Carbajal Valley , with its particular composition of peat formed over thousands of years.

The adventure continues through the valley and accessing a second mountain range that houses an incredible mirror of water called Laguna Esmeralda , due to its extraordinary color, which stands out mainly during the summer, and maintains a color that stands out from the landscape during the fall. , until freezing and turning white during winter snowfalls. This work of nature is one of the most visited attractions at the End of the World.
